

NetWorkShop

organized by Sub Project 5
(Revolution 3.0. Iconographies of social utopia in Africa and its diasporas)

Network meeting with Research Group Socialist Friendship
(Calvert 22 Gallery, London)

Tuesday, 17 February 2015

Venue: Icon Lab, Bayreuth Academy, HRS.

10.00h - 13.00h

- * Presentation of Research Project Revolution 3.0. Iconographies of social utopia in Africa and its diasporas (Fink, Siegert)
- * Presentation of Individual Research Projects (Fink, Siegert, Vierke)
- * Presentation of exhibition project Future Africa. Visions in Time (Nov 2015)
- * Icon Lab Session (moderated by Fink & Siegert)

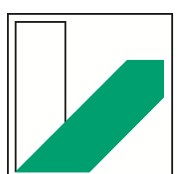

14.00h - 17.00h

Presentation of Research Project(s) and exhibition project Socialist Friendship

- * Mark Nash (Birbeck College)
- * Ros Gray (Goldsmith College)
- * Polly Savage (Goldsmith College)

Led by curator Dr Mark Nash, the research programme and exhibition project aims to collect and disseminate knowledge on connections between Africa and the Soviet Union, predominantly in the post-war period. In the workshop, TP5 and the research group exchange research results and the exhibition concepts in regard to future collaboration.

GEFÖRDERT VOM

UNIVERSITÄT
BAYREUTH

INSTITUTE OF AFRICAN STUDIES

Bundesministerium
für Bildung
und Forschung